SAZETTE AND STOCKMAN.

RENO, WASHOE COUNTY; NEVADA, THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1888.

Reno for Rio Bonito.

Am willing to trade Rio Bonito lands in Butte county, California, for two or three town lots, or for a house and lot in Reno. It is believed that Rio Bonito in Reno. It is believed that Rio Bonito property will increase in value 100 per cent within two years. There are no richer lands in the world than the Feather river bottom lands, good for oranges, lemons, peaches, apricots and other fruits without irrusation. This is an excellent opportunity for speculation, or to get a home in one of the best spots in California. Will be is Reno for a few days, and will be pleased to meet all those who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity.

Give Them a Chance! That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful chinery it is. Not only the larger airmachinery it is. Not only the larger airpssages, but the thou ands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not be there your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well. Call it coid, congh, croup, pneumonia, catarrhy consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is lust one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has falled us, you may depend upon.

Curé for Piles. Curé for Files.

Itching Piles are known by moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable moisture after getting warm. This form, as well as Blind, Bleeding and p otruding Piles, yie d at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's File Remedy, which acts directly upon the part affected, absorbing the tumors all sying the intense itching, and effecting a permaneut cure. 50 cents. N. H. A. MASON, Pres

THE SHORT PERSON.

Various Vicissitudes Which Invariably Come to the Man of Few Inches. The short man has suffered much at the hands of the writers of fiction. He is never allotted the part of the hero, though there is no valid reason why he should not be. Search through all the fiction you like, and look up the heroes: They are all tall, every one of them, no matter whether they be black, blue, gray or tawny. This is what you read:

"His tall presence overshadowed and protected her as the rine of the Appenines does the strayed or bewildered lamb," or "His form, far above the middle height, appeared before her in the moonlight and she knew that, whatever else happened, that she was his forever and ever." It is only a realistic writer who conde-cends to have the hero of the "average height," and even he is apt to forget him-self and make his hero grow, after he is long past twenty-one, into a "towering form" form."

There is a special brand of humanity kept on tap for heroes, all of them men who would have delighted the heart of Frederick the Great, who is quite wel. come to them for all we care. On the other hand, the writer, when he has an unsympathetic character to portray nearly always makes him short.

Look at the "rascally attorney"; he is always made an "undersized" man, though there is no reason why he should be. And the writer, forsooth, never makes his really respectable villain—the man who does the bold murders, the kidnappings and the big forgeries-particularly short; only those of his villains are short who are mean and contemptible curs. This is distinctly unfair.

It is hardly necessary to add that the same writer when he wants a butt for the exercise of his wit, or for his other characters to play tricks upon, takes a short man for the purpose. It is always a short man who is fool enough to fall in love with the heroine, without the ghost of a chance, and who is cut out if not kicked out, directly the hero appears; his blasted hopes are made to look ridiculous, and after a humorous attempt at suicide he is relegated for consolation to brandy and soda.—Liverpool Courier.

A CONGREGATION IMPRISONED. Hint to Ministers Troubled with a Rest-less Flock.

Some years ago the paster of a church in a rural district of Missouri shepherded a flock some members of which were in the habit of leaving the house while he was yet in the middle of a discourse. This was an eyesore to the visiting incumbent, and when one day a reverend brother vol unteered to preach for him he felt called upon to speak of the annoyance. "Oh, I'll stop that," was the reply. warrant you that no one leaves until I'm Accordingly, when he arose to speak he Introduced his sermon with the following: "My friends, before I begin my serm I wish to make a few not irrelevant remarks. You all know that a vessel when full is full, and that to continue to pour into it is folly. Some vessels are capable of holding a great deal, while others, again, are easily filled. So it is with men's heads, and it is possible that some of yours may become full before I'm through. If so, I want you to feel at

The sermon lasted an hour and a quarter, but not a mortal stirred! "Do you know," said a young man af-terwards, "I had a team of restless young horses outside, but I wouldn't have gone out to look after them for $100!"

BAISE YOUR OWN FROGS. Deligious Croaker.

Any man who has a pond on his farm can try the experiment of raising his own frogs. First, let him buy, say, six pairs of fine New Jersey breeders and dump them into the water. With these for a starter you may select a quantity of domestic bactracean, and then you will have the nucleus of a fortune. Don't interfere with your water investment for a year any more than to keep your growing stock well supplied with food. They re-quire an abundance, but as they are not very dainty in their taste the expense account will be light. For a young farm two barrels a day of hotel scraps will keep the frogs in splendid shape, so that at the end of twelve months you can begin marketing all you can fish out at the same price as spring chickens. Give me the time, and I will wager that the end of two years I will be living on an income of $5,000, and my frogs will pay all ex-penses.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Origin of Foolscap. Everybody knows what foolscap paper is, but we doubt whether one in a hundred of those who use it can tell why it is

When Oliver Cromwell became Protector of England he caused the stamp of the "Caps of Liberty" to be placed upon the paper used by the Government.

Soon after the restoration of Charles
II., when he had occasion to use some paper for dispatches, some of this Government paper was brought to him; and on being told he said;

"Take it away; I'll have nothing to do with a fool's cap."

Thus originated the term "foolscap, which has since been given to a size of writing paper usually about 16x13 inches.

Philosophical Housemaid. "No," said the housemaid, "I don't apologize to a man when I throw a bucket of water down the front steps to wash em, and he comes along and gets drenched. I've tried apologizing, but I've found there's nothing you can say to a man in that case will satisfy him."—

"These Three Are One." "Who is that lady dressed in black, namma?" asked Bobby, as he sat with his other on a ferryboat.
"That is a Sister of Charity, my boy," replied his mother.

Bobby pondered deeply for a moment and then he said, "Which is she, mamma, Faith or Hope?"—Harper's Bazar.

A Child's Pretty Conceit.

The little child was walking in the woods one summer evening when the softest of evening breezes were waving the foliage:
"Hark, mamma! Listen to the trees

MISCELLANEOUS.

EVERY NIGHT I SCRATCHED

ntil the Skin was Raw, Body Covered with scales like spots of mortar. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies.

I am going to tell you of the extraordinary change your Cuticura Remedies performed on me. About the first of April last I noticed some red pimples like coming out ail over my body, but thought nothing of it until some lime later on, when it began to look like spots of moriar spotted on, and which came off in layers, accompanied with itching. I would scratch every night ustil I was raw, and then the next night the scales being formed meanwhile were scratched off again. In vain did I consuit all the doctors in the country, but without aid. After giving up all hopes of recovery, I happened to see an advertisement in the newspaper about your Cuticura Remedies, and jurchased them from my druggist and obtained almost immediate relief. I began to notice that the scaly cruptions gradually dropped off and disappeared one by one, and have been fully cured. I had the disease thriteen months before I began taking the Cuticura Remedies, and in four or Dve weeks was entirely cured. My disease was eczema and psoriasis. I recommended the Cuticura Remedies to all in my vicinity, and I know of a great many who have taken them and thank me for the knowledge of them, especially mothers who have babes with scaly eruptions on their heads and bodies. I cannot express in words the liauks to you for what the Cuticura Remedies have been to me. My body was covered with scales, and I was an awful spectacle to behold. Now my skin is as nice and clear as a baby's. spectacle to behold.

> FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, Of Indiana. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, LEVI P. MORTON,

Of New York. THURSDAYJUNE 28. 1888

THE Republican platform is clear and explicit in its enunciation upon every subject upon which it touches. It formulates, says an exchange, upon all questions of national importance. Under it the candidate was nominated, upon it he takes his stand, with it he goes before the people and by it he either suffers defeat or attains victory. Herein is it that the Republican party differs most radically from the Democratic. The Republicans believe that their principles are greater than any man, and that in choosing a candidate they simply select the man who, in their judgment, will give best expression to these principles. The Democrats assert, and oddly enough without visible humiliation or shame, that in Cleveland they have a man greater than their party. Their platform enunciates no principles, merely says, we refer to Mr. Cleveland; his interpretations of the principles of Democracy are the ones we accept whatever they may be.

Thus it is that the Republican candidate stands upon a platform clean cut and clear in its opinion upon all important matters; while the Democrats say nothing, but point with tearful adoration to the beefy proportions of a man who is greater than the party and to whom the inquiring voter must address himself personally to know what the Democracy thinks or means.

THE commercial lines between the United States and Mexico are being drawn more closely year by year through connecting railways, says an exchange. Within a short time more than one-half of the imports to Mexico will be carried on over American railways and no smaller proportion of the exports will pass over the same roads. Of the total Mexican imports this country already furnishes nearly half or a little more than forty-two per cent. with a valuation of over $45,000,-000. Great Britain sends twenty-nine per cent., France twelve per cent., and Germany ten.

The products of Mexico are of kinds which do not or will not interfere or compete with American industries. A reciprocity treaty with Mexico would thus be of no injury to our home interests and would be of no vast advanwith over ninety per cent. of her imports and would receive in return her own products and raw materials at comparatively insignificant cost. The advantages of our Hawaiian reciprocity treaty are doubtful, but against those which we would derive from a like treaty with Mexico no valid argument could be adduced.

Something else is needed in a President than the mere ability to perform the routine duties of the office acceptably. So great a Nation as this calls for a ruler of the highest and most splendid endowments-a man whose genius is typical of the genius of the people whom he represents. After an adipose interregnum of four years, is it not time that such a man was brought to the front? The Republican party has always offered the country that style of a man, and on Monday last did not break its record.

OUR Democratic contemporaries will soon undertake the hopeless task of endeavoring to prove that the Great Accident is a full-fledged out-and-out protectionist. There are too many sheepmen in this part of the country who are pretty well informed as to his standing on matters pertaining to the wool industry to afford them much hope of making many converts to his peculiar protective(?) policy.

Who can tell how this happens? great corporations would prove the damnation of the Republican party, and yet these same Democrats appear, says the Oakland Times, to overlook the fact that Grover Cleveland, up to the time of his election as Governor, was never anything but a corporation the Legislators. Washington, June 28 .- When Mills called up the Tariff bill in the House to-day, Kellev of Pennsylvania suggested on his individual responsibility, as a means of expediting an adjournment, that the Tariff bill be laid aside until next session, its fate then to depend upon the result of the November elections, and that the surplus be kept down by the entire repeal of the tobacco tax.

The Mills Bill Again Distracting

Mills rejected the suggestion and made a counter proposal, that the Republicans should fix an early day for taking the final vote of the bill.

Reed of Maine declarat Kelley spoke for himself alone, and that the Republicans would insist upon pointing out the defects of the bill in detail. the delects of the bill in detail.

Breckenridge of Kentucky declared the Democrats intended to have a vote on the bill unless the 4th of March was reached by obstruction. He challenged the Republicans to put their platform in the shape of a legislative proposition, and then take a test vote between that and the pending bill, letting it go to the Sentte if passed by the House. He suggested that the vote be taken at the end of ten legislative days.

Reed replied that a minority could not pass a bill. It would be absurd to Springer of Illinois endeavored to have considered a resolution directing the Committee on Ways and Means to report a date for taking the vote, but Kelley objected.

Serious Conflict in the Youkon Mining District, Alaska.

SEATTLE, W. T., June 27 .- A steam chooner arrived to-day from Alaska and brought word of an Indian battle in the Youkon mining district. A large party of prospectors engaged a number of Sitka Indians to carry their baggage from the head of canoe navigation to the summit of Chimeat Pass-This enraged the Chimeat Indians. who claim a monopoly of this business. A hand-to-hand fight took place, and numbers on both sides were wounded. The second chief of the Chimeats was killed. The tribe then followed Sitka George, the opposing chief, to a white seutlement and stabbed him. That night the whites fearing him. That night the whites, fearing a general massacre, started Indian messengers to Junean for govern-ment officials. The messengers were capturec, but white men subsequently reached Juneau, and the steamer reached Juneau, and the steamer Dispatch was chartered and at once proceeded to the relief of the settlers.

King William's Speech to the Landtag.

Berlin, June 28.-King William opened the Landtag with imposing certage. Then instead of occupying but ing ceremonials. The King stood helemonies similar to the Reichstag openforty-two per cent. of the market, as meted and made his speech, which was we now do, we would practically close loudly applauded. Bismarck kissed it to Europe, would supply Mexico his hand, and the King left the chamber amid loud cheering. William's speech is in substance as follows: The Government would be exercised as a Hague, in which the Doctor admitted people and the crown and protect all relations. He was gratified with the good relations between the State and the Catholic Church, and satisfied with Prussia's finances. He hoped that Prussia's finances. He hoped that the relief of Communes and persons of the duties imposed on the same of the duties imposed on the relief of Communes and persons of small means from taxation would be possible. He concluded his speech with the quotation from Frederick the Great: "The King is the first servant of the State."

I talked with him about the matter, and he gave me the grounds on which he objected to the proposed legislation, when were that the measures were in direct conflict with the existing treaties. He held that before the bills passed, statutory laws should be made to abolish the existing treaties, so as to avoid a conflict. That is the position I occupy. But the Chinese question will not be a paramount issue in the approaching campaign on the Pacific Cossit. We have secured as much restriction of immigration and as much restriction of the rights of Chinese in our country as we will get at this time. Our people are practically quiet on this subject, and the issue in November will be fought on the tariff. The recent election in Oregon shows what position the people there hold on this subject. The nomination of Harrison, it seems to me, was the best possible solution of the complication in which the convention found itself. providing a form of restriction of Chi-

Stealing and Murdering. Nogales, A. T., June 28.—The little band of Apache Indians that has been eperating in Arispe district, Sonora, Mexico, for some time past, and running off stock, has become bold, and a few days since added two murders to their other erimes. The Indi-ders to their other crimes. The Indians attacked two herders east of Frontera, killed one and strung the other up to a tree with a lariat and left him to die. The man was rescued by a party of vaqueros who came along in time to cut him down and save his life. He said the deed was committed by four Indians and two others, whom he thought were white meu.

The next day the same band attacked two Mexicans who were driving a wagon loaded with mescal and killed one at the first shet. The other escaped into the brush. The Indians got drunk on the mescal taken from the wagon. On sof them got so drunk he could not leave with the remainder of the parly and laid down in a of the party and laid down in a drunken stupor near the road, where he was found by a party of Mexican customs line-riders and killed.

Democratic National Committee WASHINGTON, June 28 .- The National Democratic Committee met last night. Barbour of Virginia nominated William H. Barnum of Connecticut for Permanent Chairman, and he was elected by a rising vote. S. H. Sherin of Iudians, and E. D. Dickson of New York, were elected Secretary and Assistant Secretary. Charles J.

Saed for Damages. NEVADA CITY, Cal., June 27 .- Mary T. Shields, Martha J. Trebilcox and John H, Paul have commenced suit in the Superior Court for damages aggregating $87,000 against the Empire gregating $87,000 against the Empire Mining Company of Grass Valley. The claimed damages result from an explosion of giant powder in the dryhouse of the mine in March last, causing the death of William Shields and young Trebilcox, and seriously injuring Paul. Complaints allege that the explosion was due to crimical negligence on the part of the Superintendent in storing powder in the dryhouse.

PLATFORM AND RESOLUTIONS

The following platform and resolutions were adopted by the Republican State Convention, which convened at Winnemucca on the 15th instant:

The Republicans of the State of Nevada, in Convention assembled, again express their loyality to the principles of the Republican party, which have made this country so great and prosperous during the last quarter of a century.

RESOLVED. That the question of a sufficient upply of circulating medium to mainfain a permanent range of the price of labor and property is the most important political question awaiting solution by the American people. can question awaising squantity of money reduces the price of labor and property, enriches the creditor, impoverishes the debtor, and paralyzes industry and enter-reduces the price of labor and property, enriches the creditor, impoverishes the debtor, and paralyzes industry and enterprise.

That the present financial system of the United States, which increases or diminishes the circulating medium at the pleasure of the manipulators of the national banks, without regard to the increase of population or the wants of the people, and which recognizes gold alone as the standard of value, and places in the hands of the Treasury Department all the revenue of the Government to speculate with in bonds and loan to the national banks without interest, is subsersive of the rights of the people, oppressive, unjust and should be repudiated. That a financial policy whereby both gold and silver shall form the basis of circulation, whether the money used by the people be coin, or coin certificates redeemable in coin, or both, as convenience may require, is imperatively demanded.

That the attempt to substitute national bank notes, costing the Government militions of dollars annually, for free silver, costing nothing, is an outrage up nother costing nothing, is an outrage up nother expected the sovereign power of the Government to issue money, and which has fraudulently demonetized silver and seized the revenues of the Government for private speculation, shocks the moral sense of the people and destroyed, and equal rights be restored to all the people.

We charge that President Cleveland is the willing tool or agent of a powerful money ring, which fattens on the subsidies of the Government, borrows the revenues raised by t xation and uses the method in the payment of interest, contracts the cure nearly of labor and property.

That we favor the nomination of no man for President who is personally interested national banks or the bonded indebtedness of the United States, but we demand a candidate who is free to do justice to all the people of the country—the peor as well as the rich.

That the trick of the President and his advisers by which they prevented a vote in the House of Representa ernment should be inaugurated and estab-lished by the pople trough their repre-sentatives in both Houses of Congress, and not by the President or money trust, of which he, either as agent or head, is most active in defending. which he, either as agent or head, is most active in defending.

III.

We charge President Cleveland with violating every promise he made in favor of civil service reform, with crippling the mail service, with refusing to sign necessary bills for the improvement of rivers and harbors, with using the power of his administration to prevent appropriations for may and coast defenses, with attempting to destroy the protective tariff, with courting the good will of other nations at the expense of the citizens of the nited States, and with joining the foreign bondholders to demonetize silver and destroy the industries of his own country, and for the reduction of the wages of the Mint empleyes at Carson, for closing the Carson Mint when it was not only self-sustaining but a source of revenue to the Government, for his contemptuous vetoes of bills for the relief of disabled soldiers and sallors, and for falling to construct the Government building at Carson as required by law.

IV. We are in favor of the absointe exclusion of Chinese, and of the restriction of immigration by which the overcharged condition of the labor market is made worse, and we favor legislation by which a revision of our naturalization and land laws may be accomplished.

We demand in behalf of our various in-dustries the retention of the duties on lead, borax, sods, hides and leather, and to re-store the tariff of leff on wool.

RESOLVED, That we recognize the right of labor to organize for its lawful protec-VII.

We favor the appropriations by Congress for hydrographical and topographical aur-veys in this State, to the end that the waste waters may be preserved for the purpose of irrigation. vm.

We endorse the wise and conservative administration of Governor Stevenson, and we heartily commend the able efforts of Senators Jones and Stewart and Representative woodburn in behalf of the interests of this State.

IX.

We favor the reduction of the Treasury surplus by the payment of pensions to Union soldiers, their widows and orphans, the improvement of rivers and harbors, the building of defenses for the sea coast, the erection of public buildings, the creation of a navy, the purchase of bonds and the repeal of the internal revenue laws taxing tobacco.

XI.

It is the duty of this State to maintain free, non-sectarian schools in the rural and sparsely settled districts, as well as in towns and thickly populated sections, and that such division of the school money shall be made as will furnish the means of education to all children of the State.

DEATH VALLEY.

An Interesting Conundrum Pro pounded by a Eureka Editor. What is called Death valley is generally supposed to lie wholly within the State of Nevada. This is but partially true, says the Eureka Sentinel. As a matter of fact it is but a portion of the great Celorado desert stretching southward for more than 200 miles to Fort Yuma. The lowest part of it, however, is in Nevada, being about 300 feet below the level of the sea. It is not impossible that some of the popular superstitions about this valley may be dispelled in the future. There is be dispelled in the future. The presented to a merry audience last Monday night. It is a very bright production, and provoked a great deal of merriment and applause. of course it is understood that with such interpreters as Nellie Mc-Henry, John Webster, Frank Blair and Thomas E. Jackson a right jolly entertainment is assured, but it must also be conceded that in 'Phree of a Kind' Mr. Kidder has supplied a vehicle for the display of their exuberant peculiarities. The new play is a sure go."

FINLEN REMANDED.

Chief Justice Leonard Refuses to Admit Him to Bail.

A dispatch from Carson was received yesterday announcing that Chief Justice Leonard had refused to admit Miles Finlen to bail, after reviewing the testimony given by the witness summoned by the Grand Jury, and ordered that Finlen be remanded to the custody of the Sheriff, to await trial on the indict-

Sheriff, to await trial on the indictment for murder. The trial is set for Monday, July 16.

The ground upon which Finlen was remanded is not stated in the dispatch. The fact that the date set for the trial is only three weeks distant was probably one of the reasons upon which the Chief Justice based his refusal to admit the appellant to bail. appellant to bail.

Yesterday the Grand Jury of Esneralda county found a true bill against J. L. Callison for murder in the first degree. Callison is the County Commissioner of Esmeralds county who, a short time ago, shot and killed Thomas Donahue in Candelaria. At the preliminary examination the Justice of the Peace discharged him, though it was in evidence that the accused had insisted on fighting. THE INDIAN SCHOOL.

Nahom" Offers Some Good Advice Relative to the awarding of the contract to outside contractors for the erection of the proposed Indian Schoel at Carson, "Nahom" writes from Elko, under date of the 25th instant, as follows: "I could not close this letter, although now almost too lengthy, without calling the attention of a certain class of people in Nevada to a fact I very much fear they are overlooking, and to their own detriment, and that is the erection of the Indian School at Carson City. Hitherto the contestants for such contracts have endeavored to underbid the legitimate appropriation made by gress, approved in its action by the Executive, relegates to the Interior Department $50,000 for this row. Congress for such purposes. Con-Department $50,000 for this purpose. Now, why cannot all this money be spent in Carson City in contradistinction to wild goose bids made by irresponsible contractors who will claim that they can make the building all that is necessary for one-half the amount appropriated? Let them consult with each other for once in their lifetime, and consider the good of Nevada as against their own selfish desires. The money is there. Let the work begin; let the thoughtful act; let contractors know what it was appropriated for, and let the workingman know that the government is not a contractor for work which pose. Now, why cannot all this not a contractor for work which will deprive him of honest toil, from earning a living after it has agreed to place so much meney at his disposal so that he may earn au hon-est living, because a few con-tractors desire to make out of it all there is in it. I trust this bint will be acted upon at once, as the infor-mation in my possession bearing on the points above referred to, are from the most reliable sources. Many times I have thought over this. And don't you know that I think to-day, that if such rivalry as I mention would not be tolerated be high public heildred.

The largest audience of the season assembled last evening in McKissick's Opera House to witness the rendition of "Edith's Burglar" and "Ten Nights in a Barroom" by the Wilber Comedy Company. The characters, with one or two exceptions, were well sustained, and the audience manifested its appreciation by frequent and hearty appliance. This evening the company will give way to Salsbury's Troubadours—who have the winning hand for this night only—and on Friday evening "Three Wives to One Husband," a play which has had an extraordinary run in New York and Paris—100 nights in the latter former and 400 nights in the latter former and 400 nights in the latter place—will be presented, and will be cast to the full strength of the company. The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the Tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town, this addition faces the beautiful Truckee River, and Riverside avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is, it is more exempt from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before buying elsewhere, Parties will do well to look at these Lots.

"Surely," said Mrs. Morgan, "here the course of true love does run smooth."

"Well, they're not married yet," said Aunt Priscilla, sharply, adding, "I am truly glad I never made such a spectacle of myself, as is Hazel at this moment. It is too ridiculous."

Mrs. Morgan looked, and a pretty picture met her view.

happy thoughts which bore him company.

But thoughts, be they ever so joyous, are only a dream of feeling, and he longed for the day, when on the same journey, he would have the maiden, who floated on the river of his thoughts, beside him.

At last the busy Queen City was reached, and dreams of the future gave impetus to work of the present; and if sometimes brown eyes and golden hair shut out the office, with its hum of

"Is happiness ever absurd?" responded Mrs. Morgan, smiling, "it seems very sweet to me."

So rapidly passed the hours away, and home seemed welcome, though the trip had been a joyous one.

Dr. Morgan lived in one of those pretty, cozy homes in which Oakland abounds; not pretentious, but in every sense a true home. There the whole party spent a few days, and into the short time crowded so much, that, judging from events, old Father Time was cheated for once.

HUMPHREYS'

judging from events, old Father Time was cheated for once. The last day had come, packing was done and "good-bye" must be said. Hazel was to return to Denver, her home, nnder Kenneth's care, while Frank was "to dig away," (to quote his own words), "at briefs until I come far you at Christmas," for with the glad chimes that usher in the happy Xmas tide, were to ring the wedding bells for Lillian and Hazel. Truly a fitting time—the Advent season—for the beginning of their new life together. At Denver, the land of sunshine, Kenneth bade adieu to Hazel, and the rest of his journey to Cincinnati would have seemed lonely, save for the happy thoughts which bore him company. OMEOPATHIC
